RE: Vehicle Pedestrian Crash at US52 & Cumberland Avenue

On November 27, 2011 at 00:04 hours, West Lafayette Police responded to a Pedestrian/Vehicle crash at the intersection of US52 and Cumberland Avenue. Upon arrival, officer found the pedestrian, 24 year old Christopher Jones of Lafayette unconscious in the middle of the intersection having been struck by a northbound 1999 Mercury Sable driven by Michael Rayburn of West Lafayette. The driver and two witnesses stated Jones attempted to cross eastbound while northbound traffic had a green light. West Lafayette Accident Reconstructionists documented the crash. The pedestrian, Jones, was transported to St. Elizabeth East Hospital for a chest injury and is being further evaluated. Alcohol and drugs were not a factor in the crash. No citations were issued.
